

Art Course Technician Volunteer

About Anteros

The Anteros Arts Foundation is a charity for education and the promotion of the arts in Norfolk. Housed in an ancient Tudor merchant's house that is grade 2* listed, we teach short courses in fine art skills alongside the eight-month Anteros Arts Diploma, hire out rooms and hire out gallery space for a rotating programme of exhibitions from local artists.

The Role

We are looking for volunteers to help support the delivery of a variety of different art classes at Anteros. You will help set up for the class, be on hand throughout the class to gather extra materials and support the tutor and students, and then help tidy up after class, ensuring that feedback forms are completed before students leave. You may also be required to film classes as we move to online offers. It is a practical role involving handling easels, art materials, chairs etc but gives you the opportunity to sit in on high quality art classes.

Key Skills

Reliable with good time management

Comfortable following instruction

Confident in manual handling

Interest in and experience of different art materials to support the correct set up for each class, although you will receive supervision from the staff team

Confident in using technology to be able to film classes for online audiences via Zoom or for upload after class to our website

Time Commitment

This role is day courses which usually last 10am – 5pm with 30 minutes either side for set up and take down, and are at least once a week. This role could be supported by several volunteers.

What's in it for you?

A chance to meet new people
